FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE - September 2017

Art World Forum proudly announces its second annual Singapore event, 'Creating Markets: Opportunities, Challenges and the Mainstream', on Wednesday 27th September from 10am – 4pm at One Farrer Hotel, Singapore.

Following the success of the Singapore forum held at the St. Regis last year in conjunction with the launch of the Singapore biennale, and the half-day events in Hong Kong during the hectic Art Basel week in March, Art World Forum is pleased to host its second annual edition in Singapore with upcoming forums in Europe.

The theme 'Creating Markets: Opportunities, Challenges and the Mainstream', refers to a changing environment in search of alternative growth initiatives, strategies, niche marketplace opportunities and innovation.

Welcoming a selection of carefully curated discussions led by art business thought leaders and influencers, topics include the value of art and its marketplace, the prominence of digitalisation with the introduction of virtual reality, and the working dynamic between the various players of the arts ecosystem.

Alongside a full-day conference, our distinguished guest speakers and partners will be invited for a sponsored site visit hosted by the Fine Art Logistics Natural Le Coultre at the Freeport, Singapore, and a pre-event drinks reception sponsored by AXA Art.
